The Reveal

'Your wedding, your dreams, our destination'

Church Weddings

Church weddings

One of our special features is the 13th Century picturesque church of St Giles which is set within the curtilage of the historic Gileston Manor Estate. If your dream is to be married in a church, then St Giles is the perfect ceremony location for you and up to 80 of your loved ones

@philwarrenphoto

The use of the St Giles Church is subject to Church in Wales qualifying criteria and an additional fee will be payable directly to the Church.

Manor House Weddings

The Estate's Queen Anne Grade II* listed Manor House dates back to the 1320's, and whilst retaining many original features, it is now a luxurious 5* wedding venue and country retreat nestled in 10 acres of beautiful gardens and grounds.

The Manor House exudes stately grandeur, with its opulent ballroom, making it the perfect setting to gather up to 38 of your family and friends as you say "I Do".

Secret Garden Weddings

Bringing the outdoors in, the Secret Garden is a covered outdoor space. Featuring original stonework & greenery, it is a bright open area that can be dressed exactly how you want, to create the wedding of your dreams.

The Secret Garden is the perfect location for your ceremony, where up to 140 of your loved ones can gather to witness you say "I Do".

The Secret Garden can also be used for your Intimate Wedding breakfast or celebration; dine under the stars and our twinkling fairy lights.
